THANK YOU for CROSSING THE OCEAN for us—

We're inviting you all the way across the ocean, from the Netherlands— from Brabant to Bali, for the once-in-a-lifetime moment of our lives. A day that, honestly, neither of us was ever sure would come. Until it arrives.

Ubud is personal to us. A couple of years ago, we visited Ubud and stayed during the Silence Day (Nyepi), when the entire island stops and reflects. No travel, no lights, nowhere to go and nothing to do but be present with each other.

It was in that stillness that we realised we would like to move toward the future, together.

Next following year, Bram proposed to Putri here in Ubud, beside the Ayung River. The very same valley we are bringing you to now.

Your presence is the gift— the only one that matters to us.
To be there, to witness when we exchange our vows of forever, and to transform our special moment into something shared, something real.

Thank you for crossing the ocean for us, from the lowlands to the highlands. We are looking forward to having you in Ubud.

— Putri & Bram

We've spent couple of years exploring this island from jungle hideaways to clifftop bars, quiet rice paddies to all-night beach clubs. These are the places we return to and the spots we'd like to recommend you.

UBUD — is personal to us. Its appeal lies in its authenticity: lush green jungle, monkeys wandering freely, excellent food, and a pace that encourages you to slow down. This is where we got engaged, and where Bali became more than just a destination for us.

KALIMANTAN: ORANG UTAN WILDLIFE EXPERIENCE

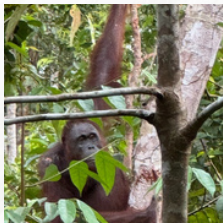

An option for those interested in remote travel and wildlife — like Bram. Accommodation is on a klotok, a traditional wooden houseboat, travelling along jungle rivers without electricity or mobile signal. Activities typically include visits to orangutan rehabilitation areas such as Camp Leakey, sightings of monkeys along the riverbanks, and guided walks in protected rainforest areas. Evenings are spent on the river, away from distraction.

PRACTICAL GUIDES

- Fly from Jakarta or Surabaya to Pangkalan Bun in Central Kalimantan. Most tours depart from Kumai port, about 30 minutes from the airport.
- Standard 3-day/2-night klotok tours cost approximately €200-300 per person (IDR 3.5-5 million), including boat accommodation, all meals, guide, park permits, and transfers.
- Book directly with local operators in Kumai for the best rates, or arrange through tour companies in advance during peak season (June-September).

WHAT'S NEW JAKARTA

JAKARTA: URBAN CITY IN A CONSTANT MOTION

A strong contrast to Indonesia's remote landscapes, Jakarta is modern and restless yet forever will be Putri first-choice. Born and raised before moving to Amsterdam, (South) Jakarta is a home to her. It offers scale & energy, along with the Southeast Asia's best dining, shopping, and nightlife. Jakarta is less about sightseeing and more about experiencing how modern Indonesia lives, works, and socialises.

PRACTICAL GUIDES

- Fly directly from the Netherlands to Jakarta. It works well as a short stopover before continuing elsewhere in Indonesia.
- Rooftop bars and skyline dining are best found in central business districts (Senopati and SCBD area).
- Jakarta has a rich street-food culture (sate ayam, bakso, nasi goreng), best enjoyed in the evenings. Look for busy, well-lit stalls or visit curated food areas and night markets if it's your first time.
- Due to traffic conditions and air pollution, plan your day carefully and choose your mode of transport wisely to minimise time spent in traffic.

ASK Putri WHERE TO TRAVEL IN Indonesia

PRACTICAL before & in INFORMATION Indonesia

VACCINE | HEALTHCARE

VACCINES

Recommended: Hepatitis A, Typhoid, Dengue, Tetanus/Diphtheria/Polio boosters. Consult your GP based on your plans.

HEALTH (& TRAVEL) INSURANCE

Recommended to get world coverage travel insurance including emergency medical treatment covering Indonesia before traveling.

HEALTHCARE IN BALI: RECOMMENDED HOSPITALS & CLINICS

- BIMC Siloam Nusa Dua / BIMC Ubud – International standard, guaranteed acceptance by Dutch insurance, direct billing with 90+ international insurers
- Siloam Hospitals Denpasar – JCI accredited, comprehensive services
- UniCare Clinics - Smaller clinics

All have 24-hour emergency care and English-speaking staff.

STAYING HEALTHY: WATER & FOOD

- Never drink tap water and drink mineral bottled water only. Avoid ice cubes from street vendors.
- Eat local Indonesian food (better for your system than Western cuisine)
- Limit Western dishes with dairy or raw ingredients and limit raw salads unless at reputable restaurants

OPTIONAL RECOVERY

Vitamin C and IV infusions are common in Indonesia to recover from long flights, party or sickness. Available at BIMC/Siloam (€30-60) or local wellness clinics (€18-48).

GENERAL ADVICE

Antibiotics are widely available over-the-counter due to varying hygiene standards. If you experience stomach issues, visit a clinic. Don't wait. Stay hydrated (bottled water) and avoid sun exposure between 11:00-15:00.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION about Indonesia

FLIGHTS | DEPARTURE

DEPARTURE FROM THE NETHERLANDS

DIRECT OPTION TO JAKARTA

Garuda Indonesia operates direct flights from Amsterdam Schiphol (AMS) to Jakarta Soekarno-Hatta International Airport (CGK). Flight time: approximately 15 hours.

Most travellers from the Netherlands connect through Jakarta. After clearing customs in Jakarta, you'll take a domestic flight to Bali (approximately 1 hour 45 minutes). Total travel time including layover: 18–22 hours.

RECOMMENDED: KLM ROYAL DUTCH AIRLINES

For the best comfort and service from the Netherlands, we recommend KLM Royal Dutch Airlines. KLM offers convenient routing options via their partnership network and maintains the high standards Dutch travellers expect. Direct flights from Amsterdam to Bali (Ngurah Rai Airport, DPS) are not available. All routes to Bali require at least one connection. Total travel time including layover: 16–18 hours.

ALTERNATIVE (CHEAPER) ROUTINGS

One-stop options via Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Doha, or Dubai. These routes often offer competitive pricing and shorter layovers but extend total travel time to 16–20 hours.

IMPORTANT: APPLY FOR E-VOA BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

We strongly recommend checking and applying (if eligible) for your Electronic Visa on Arrival (e-VoA) before departure. This allows you to skip the VoA queue at the airport and use the faster e-Gates for immigration processing.

Please check the official Indonesian immigration website at imigrasi.go.id for the most current visa requirements and application procedures for your specific nationality.

COST & VALIDITY

IDR 500,000 (approximately €27) for 30 days, extendable once.

PASSPORT REQUIREMENTS

Your passport must meet the following requirements:

- Valid for at least 6 months from your date of entry into Indonesia
- At least two completely blank visa pages (pages with stamps or markings are not acceptable)
- In good physical condition—no water damage, torn pages, or separation of pages from the binding
- Not previously reported lost or stolen
- Biometric passport recommended for e-Gate access

Important: Indonesian immigration is strict about passport condition. Damaged passports, even with minor tears or water marks, will result in denial of entry. If your passport shows any signs of wear, consider renewing it before travel.

HOW TO APPLY FOR E-VOA

Apply online at molina.imigrasi.go.id at least 10 days before departure. The process takes 5–10 minutes and approval typically arrives within 3–5 business days via email.

The e-VoA allows you to:

- Use automated e-Gates (if you hold a biometric passport)
- Skip the VoA queue entirely
- Proceed directly to immigration upon arrival

IF PURCHASING VOA AT THE AIRPORT

If you haven't arranged e-VoA in advance, you can purchase VoA upon arrival at designated counters before immigration. Expect queues, particularly during peak arrival times. Payment accepted by credit card or cash (EUR, USD, AUD, GBP).

BEFORE YOU LAND: COMPLETE YOUR CUSTOMS DECLARATION

Indonesia requires all arriving passengers to complete a customs declaration form. You can complete this online in advance at ecd.beacukai.go.id, which will save time upon arrival. The QR code generated will be scanned at customs.

BALI TOURIST LEVY (MANDATORY)

All foreign tourists entering Bali must pay a tourist levy of IDR 150,000 (approximately €8) per person. This can be paid online in advance at lovebali.baliprov.go.id, which is strongly recommended to avoid queues at the airport. After payment, you'll receive a QR code via email, save this to your phone or print it. You'll need to show it at the airport.

SIM CARD & MOBILE DATA

Purchase an Indonesian tourist SIM card at the airport for IDR 100,000–150,000 (€6–8). Major providers: Telkomsel, XL Axiata, and Indosat. These offer 15–30GB of data valid for 30 days, sufficient for maps, ride-hailing apps, and staying connected.

- Recommended: Buy your SIM at the airport immediately upon exiting customs. Vendors are located in the arrivals hall. Your passport will be required. The vendor will install and activate the SIM for you.
- Alternative: Some travellers prefer eSIM options purchased before departure (e.g., Airalo, Holafly), which can be activated upon landing. These are convenient but typically more expensive than local SIMs.

GETTING CASH: ATMS ONLY

Never use money changers in Indonesia. Scams, counterfeit notes, and short-changing are common, even at seemingly legitimate locations. Instead: Use bank ATMs exclusively. Look for ATMs from major Indonesian banks (for example):

- BCA (Bank Central Asia)
- Mandiri
- BNI (Bank Negara Indonesia)
- BRI (Bank Rakyat Indonesia)

These are found at the airport, in Ubud town centre, and at most hotels and shopping areas. Maximum withdrawal limits vary by bank, typically IDR 3,000,000–5,000,000 (€170–285) per transaction.

PAYMENT STRATEGY

- Pay by credit card (preferably visa & mastercard) whenever possible. Hotels, restaurants, and established businesses accept cards. This provides better exchange rates than cash and creates a paper trail.
- Use cash for tipping only. Keep small denominations (IDR 5,000, 10,000, 20,000 notes) for tipping drivers, hotel staff, and service providers.
- Critical: Always Pay in IDR. When paying by card, the payment terminal may ask if you want to pay in EUR or IDR. Always choose IDR. Paying in EUR (dynamic currency conversion) results in poor exchange rates and hidden fees. Let your bank handle the conversion—it will be more favourable.

TIPPING GUIDELINES

Tipping is not obligatory in Indonesia but is appreciated for good service:

- Restaurants: IDR 50,000–100,000 (€3–6) or 10% if service charge not included
- Private drivers: IDR 100,000 (€6) per day
- Hotel staff (porters, housekeeping): IDR 20,000–50,000 (€1–3)
- Spa services: IDR 50,000–100,000 (€3–6)

ATM FEES

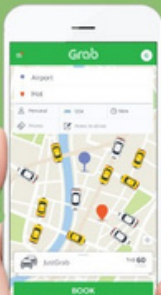

Your bank will likely charge a foreign transaction fee (typically €3–5 per withdrawal). Indonesian ATMs may also charge IDR 20,000–30,000 (€1–2). Minimise fees by withdrawing larger amounts less frequently rather than making multiple small withdrawals.

GOJEK & GRAB
App-based transport services

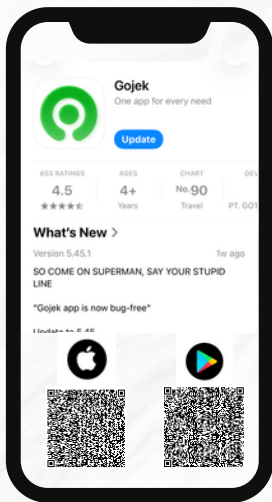

Grab

gojek

DOWNLOAD BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

WHAT ARE THEY: GOJEK & GRAB

Both are Southeast Asia's equivalent to Uber. App-based transportation services that connect you with drivers. Both operate throughout Bali and are essential for independent travel.

VEHICLE OPTIONS

- Car (4 seats) & BlueBird Taxi - reliable taxi service (via Apps): IDR 25,000–50,000 (€1.50–3) for short trips in Ubud
- Motorbike taxi: IDR 15,000–30,000 (€1–2) for short trips. Cheaper but only suitable for solo travellers without luggage.

PAYMENT

Both apps accept credit cards or cash. If paying by card, the amount is automatically charged. If paying cash, the exact fare is displayed, have small bills ready (drivers rarely carry change).

GOJEK VS. GRAB

Both work similarly. Download both and compare prices. Sometimes one is significantly cheaper than the other. Gojek tends to have more drivers in Ubud area, but Grab is often more reliable for airport pickups.

BALI AIRPORT: GOJEK LOUNGE

If you don't arrange airport transfer via your hotel (which is highly recommended), you can book GoCar (the car version of Gojek) after landing.

Follow the airport signs to the Gojek waiting lounge in Bali airport, where staff will assist and coordinate your pickup.

BALI AIRPORT: GRAB LOUNGE

Grab works in a similar way with Gojek. Book a GrabCar through the app, then proceed to the Grab waiting lounge at the airport.

Staff will check your booking and guide you to the pickup point once your car is ready. Please make sure you go to the right waiting lounge.

BLUE BIRD TAXI

Bluebird is Indonesia's most reliable conventional taxi service. You can go directly to the Bluebird taxi queue at the airport to receive a number and depart immediately, or book a Bluebird taxi via the Grab or Gojek app.

All taxis are metered, air-conditioned, and widely trusted, often the simplest option after arrival.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION about Indonesia

TRANSPORTATION & GETTING AROUND

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Grab/Gojek drivers are not permitted to pick up or drop off at certain locations (some resorts, temples, tourist sites) due to local taxi cartels. If your driver asks you to walk a short distance to meet them, this is normal.
- During peak times (morning/evening rush, rain), surge pricing applies and wait times increase.
- Both apps display fares in IDR before booking, so there are no surprises.
- Save the resort's full address in Bahasa Indonesia in your phone, not all drivers read and understand English well.
- We highly recommend tipping to gojek and grab drivers (via app).
